Please remember to bring non-perishable items to put in the Food Box to share with those in need.

Our Church Week

Tue Prayer and Bible Study starts at 7 p.m. Come and join others in the body of Christ as together we study His Word, and come before our Father in prayer.

Wed Our Growing Together programme for families runs from 5:30 – 7:30 p.m. We are still in need of a few extra people to help out in the Nursery or as Teacher-Helpers. If this is a ministry you feel God is calling you to, please speak to Cindy Bailey or Tricia Williamson.

Thur Calvary Baptist Youth Group meets tonight in the Church Fellowship Hall. This group is for youth ages 12–17. For more information contact Cindy Bailey or Matthew Nicholson.

Next Sunday, Oct. 4th, following the church service, Pastor Benjamin and the Elders will update the congregation on church ministries. Anyone interested is invited to remain after the service.

Special Notice: The Gravenhurst Ministerial is considering taking over providing a free turkey dinner to the community, likely in late November this year. There will be a meeting at this Tues. Sept. 29th at 2 p.m. at Knox Presbyterian Church for anyone interested in volunteering, or in giving input.

Don't Forget Your Church Library

Our church library has acquired many books recently. You are encouraged to come downstairs and borrow them. There are many novels as well as books for women, books on parenting, biographies, missions and others to help you in your Christian walk with God. We also have books for children, young and older. If you like to study God's word, we have many reference books that might help. Come on in and take a look. The Library is always open. Any questions can be directed to Eileen Godfrey.

Please remember: Ruth St. Clair is in rehab at Georgian Bay General Hospital in Midland. Her phone number is 705-526-1300 ext 2015; mailing address is P.O. Box 760, Midland, ON L4R 4P4.

My Utmost for His Highest by Oswald Chambers

...someone said to Him, "Lord, I will follow You wherever You go."

Luke 9:57

Our Lord's attitude toward this man was one of severe discouragement, "for He knew what was in man" (John 2:25). We would have said, "I can't imagine why He lost the opportunity of winning that man! Imagine being so cold to him and turning him away so discouraged!" Never apologize for your Lord. The words of the Lord hurt and offend until there is nothing left to be hurt or offended.

Jesus Christ had no tenderness whatsoever toward anything that was ultimately going to ruin a person in his service to God. Our Lord's answers were not based on some whim or impulsive thought, but on the knowledge of "what was in man." If the Spirit of God brings to your mind a word of the Lord that hurts you, you can be sure that there is something in you that He wants to hurt to the point of its death.

Luke 9:58. These words destroy the argument of serving Jesus Christ because it is a pleasant thing to do. And the strictness of the rejection that He demands of me allows for nothing to remain in my life but my Lord, myself, and a sense of desperate hope. He says that I must let everyone else come or go, and that I must be guided solely by my relationship to Him. And He says, "...the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head."

Luke 9:59. This man did not want to disappoint Jesus, nor did he want to show a lack of respect for his father. We put our sense of loyalty to our relatives ahead of our loyalty to Jesus Christ, forcing Him to take last place. When your loyalties conflict, always obey Jesus Christ whatever the cost.

Luke 9:61. The person who says, "Lord, I will follow You, but..." is the person who is intensely ready to go, but never goes. This man had reservations about going. The exacting call of Jesus has no room for good-byes; good-byes, as we often use them, are pagan, not Christian, because they divert us from the call. Once the call of God comes to you, start going and never stop.
